

Return Eligibility Criteria

Document ID: RT-002 | Version 3.2 | Effective: 1 January 2026 | Department: Returns

1. Overview

This document lists which products and conditions qualify for return. It should be read together with the Return Policy (RT-001).

2. Eligibility by Category

Category	Change of Mind	Defective / Wrong Item	Notes
Clothing and shoes	Yes (tags on, unworn)	Yes	Try-on at home allowed
Mobile phones	No	Yes (DOA within 7 days)	Seal and IMEI must match
Laptops and tablets	No	Yes (DOA within 7 days)	Do not install software before testing
Home appliances	No	Yes	Installation defects go to warranty
Books and stationery	Yes (unused)	Yes	Must have no markings
Toys and baby products	Yes (sealed)	Yes	Opened baby items not returnable
Furniture	No	Yes	Report within 48 hours of delivery
Groceries	No	Yes (if damaged or expired)	Report on delivery
Beauty and personal care	No	Yes	Must be sealed unless defective

3. Dead on Arrival (DOA) Rule

A product is considered DOA if it does not power on or has a manufacturing fault at the time of first use within 7 days of delivery. DOA claims require a short video of the fault. Approved DOA claims are replaced with a new unit where stock is available, otherwise fully refunded.

4. Furniture and Large Items

Furniture and large appliances must be inspected at delivery. Visible damage should be reported within 48 hours of delivery with photos. Assembly-related damage caused by the customer is not eligible.

5. Conditions That Make an Item Ineligible

- Signs of use, wear, washing, stains or odour
- Missing tags, packaging, accessories or free gifts
- Physical damage caused after delivery
- Serial number or IMEI mismatch
- Return requested after the window has closed
- Product altered, repaired or opened by an unauthorised person

6. Manufacturer Warranty

Items outside the 7-day return window but within the manufacturer warranty should be taken to the brand's service centre. Daraz support can share the warranty terms and service centre list on request.
